Tutoring Experience

Over the past 15 years, I have worked extensively with students preparing for IGCSE, IB, and A-Level Spanish exams. My expertise includes supporting students in mastering grammar, vocabulary, and speaking fluency while incorporating cultural elements to enrich their learning. Many of my students have achieved exceptional results, paving the way for academic and career success.

In addition to one-on-one tutoring, I have collaborated with schools and language institutes in Germany to design and implement Spanish curricula. My experience extends to mentoring IB students on their Written Assignments and Oral Assessments and guiding A-Level learners in essay writing and exam preparation.

I have also supported students aiming to develop their Spanish proficiency for university admissions and international certifications, such as the DELE. My approach focuses on building a strong foundation and helping students confidently navigate language complexities in academic and real-world contexts.
