Tutoring Experience

I began tutoring History in 2020, focusing on IGCSE and A-Level students. Over the years, I've supported learners in mastering complex historical topics such as revolutions, colonialism, and political ideologies. My students have consistently achieved excellent results, often surpassing their predicted grades.

In addition to one-on-one tutoring, I've guided IB students through their Extended Essays and Internal Assessments, ensuring they meet academic standards. My teaching experience also includes helping students develop strong essay-writing skills and analytical techniques, enabling them to confidently approach exams and coursework.
